

WITCHCRAFT ACCUSATIONS

Conversion, Healing, and Witchcraft Beliefs among Patients in a Togolese Mission Hospital

J. Rupert Morgan

June 22, 2014

African theology, contextual theology

WATCH

LISTEN

Download Audio File

Share:

RESOURCE OVERVIEW

Conversion, Healing, and Witchcraft Beliefs among Patients in a Togolese Mission Hospital

Blurb forthcoming

This presentation was recorded during the ASM Conference in a tracked dedicated to Witchcraft Accusations.

Biography

J. Rupert Morgan (PhD, Trinity International University) is the Strategic Initiatives & Research Coordinator for the Association of Baptists for World Evangelism. John is a graduate of Hamot Medical Center School of Nursing (RN), Cedarville College (B.A.), Grand Rapids Baptist Seminary (MDiv), Dallas Theological Seminary (STM), and Trinity International University (PhD – Intercultural Studies). John has served as a missionary with ABWE since 1983 as a nurse and hospital administrator in Togo, Africa, USA church planter, and currently as Coordinator of Strategic Initiatives and Research at ABWE Headquarters in New Cumberland, PA.

Tweet

Like 0

G+